Headline:
Another dry and bright day on Tuesday.

Today:
Any early mist and fog patches in river valleys will soon clear, leaving a dry and largely sunny day. Feeling warm in the light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
More cloud over the western hills tonight but largely clear further east. Dry everywhere but mist and fog patches could reform under clear skies. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Wednesday:
Early mist and fog soon clearing on Wednesday leaving a fine morning. Cloud increasing during the afternoon and turning quite windy, patchy rain over the hills later. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday remaining windy, cloudy with outbreaks of rain, mainly across the Pennines. Friday windy, some sunny spells, mainly dry. Lighter winds on Saturday, dry and bright. Near average temperatures throughout.
